

Evaluation Report: South Carolina Cancer Alliance Cancer Survivorship Workshop

South Carolina Cancer Alliance held a survivorship workshop on September 14, 2019 in Fort Mill, South Carolina designed for cancer patients and their caregivers.

TOPICS

- Taking care of your whole self
- Becoming your own health advocate
- Exercising while in treatment
- From the Chemo chair to Capitol Hill

99% of attendees strongly agreed or agreed the speakers provided helpful feedback about the following topics:
 1)Unspoken Feelings 2)Improved Outcomes Through Patient Education
 3)Planning Ahead: Wills and Estates
 4)From Chemo Chair to Capital Hill and 5)Chair Yoga

QUALITY OF THE ACADEMY

100% strongly agreed or agreed the Evidence Academy was well organized

100% strongly agreed or agreed the 1 day format of the Academy was appropriate

76% rated the overall quality of the Evidence Academy
EXCELLENT 21% VERY GOOD and 2% GOOD

Comments

“Thank you for this workshop. I learned a lot and experienced several emotions; all good. I will encourage others to attend next year.”

“This workshop was very educational and presentations were timely and interesting. I very much appreciate the efforts of SC Cancer Alliance.”

“First time attending and I look forward to next year. Keep up the excellent work”

Tons of great information-many things I was not aware of. Thank you for providing this very productive, organized workshop.