

HEALTH INEQUITIES IN THE PEE DEE

Seminar Objectives:

1. Educating and understanding health equity in the Pee Dee
2. Involving local colleges to award credit for attendance
3. Driving change in healthcare attitudes before young professionals enter the field

Overall event rated
4.58 out of 5

Reaching the Target Audience

Out of 176 attendees:

 77%
Completed an evaluation

 71%
Were in college or working in healthcare while studying

 72%
Attended for relevance to work or as required by a professor/supervisor

"[I] feel better about going into healthcare so I can make a difference."

Attendees learned the most about:

- Inequities faced by disabled persons
- African-American medical history and mistrust
- Healthcare challenges faced by Latinx individuals
- Community resources
- Building trust in the community
- Implementing change with an individualized and culturally sensitive patient care approach

Other feedback and suggestions:

What's next?
How do we solve issues through action?

Continue to provide awareness.

The delivery, the speakers, the information was GREAT!

Topics of interest for future events:

Women's health Mental health

Uncomfortable, as it should be.

This info should be statewide!