

Annual Meeting - Activating Equity: Ways to Get Comfortable Being Uncomfortable!

October 28, 2022

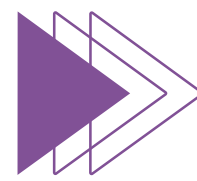

Topics: Health equity, Men's Cancer Initiative, Know Early Campaign

Overall, how would you rate today's event as a whole?

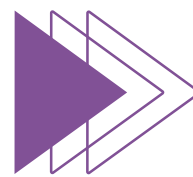

94% of participants said excellent to this question

The event was well organized

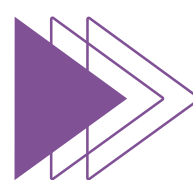

94% of participants strongly agreed with this statement

The events or organizers ensured that the day's presentation stayed on time and on track

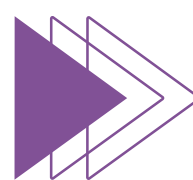

94% of participants strongly agreed or agreed with this statement

The presenter/s was/were prepared and well organized

81% of participants strongly agreed with this statement

The topics discussed were relevant to my work or studies

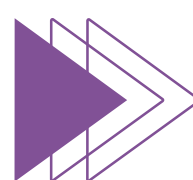

100% of participants strongly agreed with this statement

The visual aids were relevant and helpful

94% of participants strongly agreed with this statement

I have questions that were left unanswered by this event

69% of participants strongly disagreed or disagreed with this statement

What is one thing (or more) you learned from today's event that you did not previously know?

- I enjoyed Mike Young. I wish he was able to finish his presentation. Very interactive and engaging person
- I learned about the Bracero Program
- To bring awareness to lung cancer early detection and screenings
- Cultural humility
- More info about the legislative funding and know more initiative
- The level of disconnect across cultures
- Know early campaign
- Really enjoyed the messaging approaches in the second presentation. Will definitely be taking it back to current position
- Importance of conversation and JEDI

Is there anything you learned that you could use to implement change in your practice/work/research?

- Lung cancer toolkit. Diversity and understanding cultural differences regarding working with partners from various backgrounds
- Ways to be respectful in cultural curiosity
- Cultural humility
- Yes, basically everything
- Recognizing implicit bias and looking at ways to be more aware of unconscious/conscious biases
- Yes. All presentations offered valuable, usable information. I learned new approaches to apply
- Diversity efforts
- Men's Cancer initiative
- Absolutely loved Mike's presentation. Looking forward to continuing the conversation.

Do you have suggestions or comments?

- No suggestions. Keep doing great events Henry and team
- Use the mic so everyone can hear. For the presenter to scan the entire room for comment/questions and to look at the entire room when presenting. It was very hard to hear everyone and the whole room wasn't engaged in the initial presentation
- Unfortunatley, the keynote (Mike) wasn't able to cover all pp slides. It looked like very important information
- This annual meeting was awesome!
- Great annual meeting
- Great meeting