

2022 ALLIANCE SURVEY RESULTS

This survey aims to assess the composition of the Alliance's constituents and gather feedback to improve our programs and services. This survey was reviewed by 227 constituents and completed by 64.

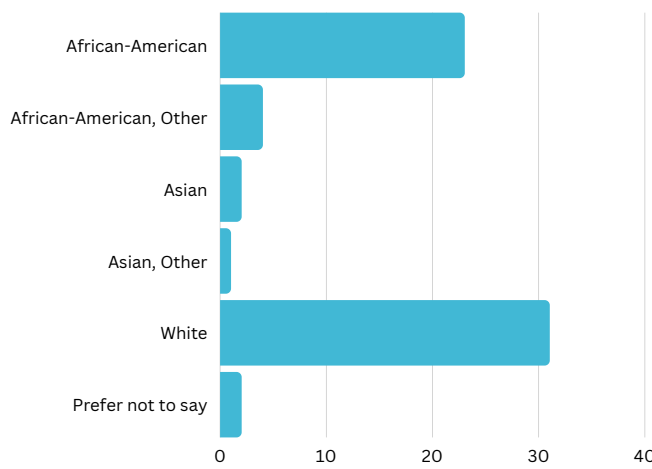

The following chart indicates how familiar the survey respondents are with the mission of the South Carolina Cancer Alliance and the purpose of the State Cancer Plan.

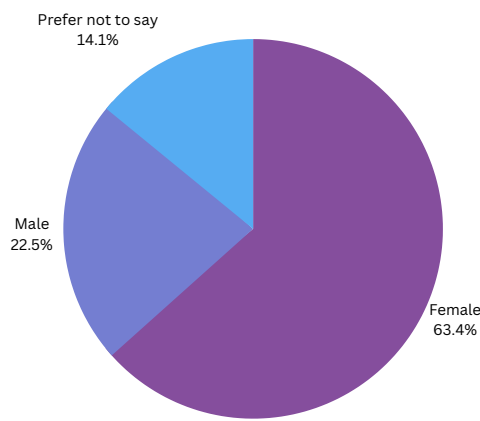

The percentage of respondents representing or working with a minority group or underserved population.

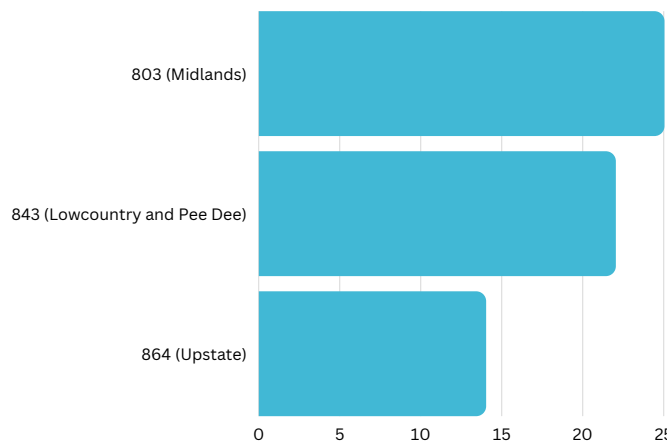

The ethnicity of the survey respondents.

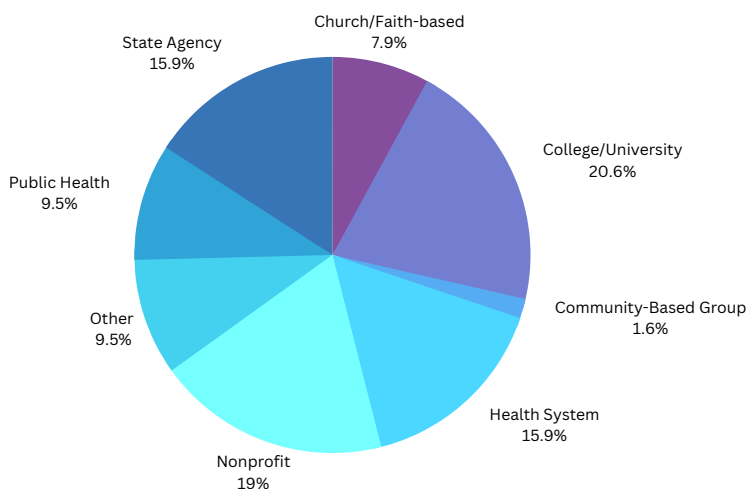

The gender selected by the survey respondents.

The area code where the survey respondents reside.

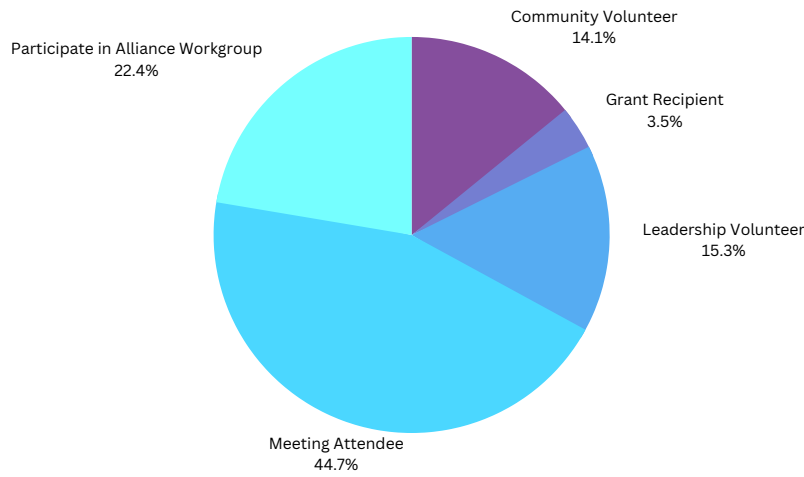

The type of organization the survey respondents work for.

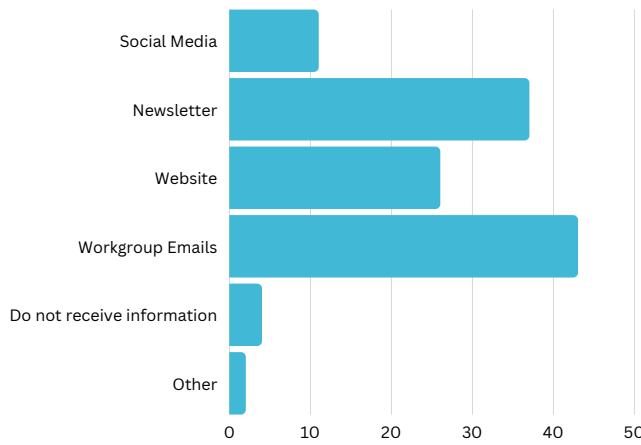

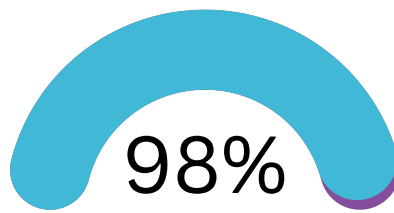

The involvement of the survey respondents.

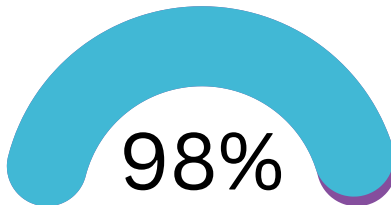

How the survey respondents receive information and updates about the South Carolina Cancer Alliance.

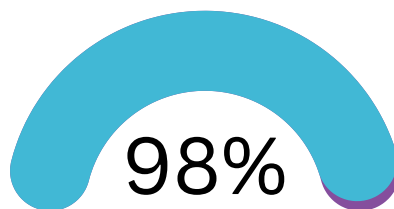

The percentage of survey respondents that agree with the following statement - The Alliance helps advance and promote health equity in South Carolina

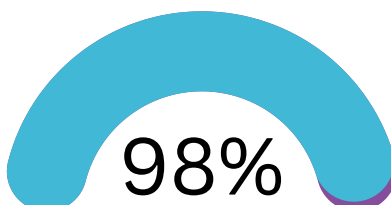

The percentage of survey respondents that agree with the following statement - The Alliance builds partnerships with key stakeholders to guide cancer prevention and control efforts throughout the state

The percentage of survey respondents that agree with the following statement - The Alliance produces and supports data-driven reports to guide efforts to address cancer throughout the state (e.g., South Carolina Cancer Plan)

The percentage of survey respondents that agree with the following statement - The Alliance engages in grassroots efforts to teach community members how to implement awareness programs and promote local screening services

The percentage of survey respondents that agree with the following statement - The Alliance appropriately communicates organization updates and initiatives via the Alliance website, social media, newsletters, email updates, etc.

“ The Alliance serves a much-needed purpose as South Carolina's cancer control consortium. ”